I agree with the following statement of faith as laid down by the trustees and declare that I am a practicing Christian of the..... congregation/church.

I Believe:

That Jesus Christ is the only Son of God, and revelation on Earth of Him.
That salvation and reconciliation to God come to us human sinners only through the merits of his Death on the Cross, and our faith is that act of salvation, unmerited by us.

That the Holy Bible (the Scriptures, known as the Old and New Testaments) is the ultimate authority by which we both learn of the conditions of our salvation and are guided in the way in which Christians ought to live. That those Scriptures are entirely inspired by the Holy Spirit and entirely trustworthy, and that nothing that cannot be proved from a proper study of them is necessary for our salvation.

In the present ministry of the Holy Spirit by whose indwelling the Christian is enabled to live a godly life (Romans 8:13-14; 1 Corinthians 3:16, 6:19-20; Ephesians 4:30, 5:18).

That the work of God the Holy Spirit, the third and equal member of the Trinity, is necessary to make the sacrifice of Jesus effective to the individual sinner, and to work towards sanctification in his life.

That the term marriage has only one meaning: the uniting of one man and one woman in a single, exclusive union, as delineated in Scripture (Genesis 2:18-25).

That God intends sexual intimacy to occur only between a man and a woman who are married to each other (1 Corinthians 6:18, 7:2-5; Hebrews 13:4).

That God's command is that there be no sexual intimacy outside of or apart from marriage between a man and a woman.

That God wonderfully foreordained and immutably created each person as either male or female in conformity with their biological sex. These two distinct yet complementary genders together reflect the image and nature of God (Genesis 1:26-27).

Our Statement of Faith is not exhaustive of all of our beliefs. The Bible, as the inspired and infallible Word of God, speaks with absolute authority regarding the proper conduct of mankind and is the unchanging foundation for all belief and behaviour.
