I am speechless in wonder at the events of this week. After so long of appearing to be stationary, this week has exploded in action.

The painters are painting; the builders are building and the irrigation system is finally up and running.

These are your victories! Our Lendy Park Community.

Thinking back to the Jericho Walk last year, I just see prayers answered and God's blessing on our community.

Thank you to everyone who has contributed to this progress in our school.
