Whose Plan is it Anyway?

Not so long ago, the picture above would have been of beautiful msasa woodlands and Lendy Park had no school hall. While I love the beauty of the forests, this hall stands as testament to what God can achieve if He is given the chance to do His will.

At Lendy, we have a number of plans including the new bus; the new hostel facilities; the equipping of the two boreholes and the reservoir: among other things. With these developments, we believe that we can take a huge step forward in terms of developing and advancing the school's vision by increasing the numbers of children that will hear God's word spoken every day at school, by people who truly believe what they are saying.

However, let us not forget that the plans of men are not necessarily the plans of God. I ask you all to earnestly pray that His will may be done in this, His school. While buildings and hostels are important, we MUST make sure that we are following His plan for His school.
